2023 1040 Tax Return Annual Engagement Letter

Dear Client,

1. This letter confirms the services you have asked our firm to perform and the terms under which we have agreed to perform that work. Please read this letter carefully - it is important that you understand what you can expect from our services.

The filing deadline for 2022 federal and state Individual tax returns is Tuesday April 18, 2023. To ensure we complete your return(s) by this deadline we encourage that you submit your tax data to us as soon as you have all tax year documentation compiled. We work on a first-in, first-out basis. Due to client volume and changing tax laws, even during tax season, we will be forced to place some returns on extension. If an extension is required, any tax due with these returns must be paid.

2. This engagement letter represents the entire agreement regarding the services described herein and supersedes all prior negotiations, proposals, representations, or agreements, written or oral, regarding these services. It shall be binding on the heirs, successors and assigns of you and us. The Internal Revenue Service imposes penalties on taxpayers, and on us as return preparers, for failure to observe due care in reporting for income tax returns. We will prepare the returns from information which you will furnish to us. It is your responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns. We will furnish you with questionnaires and/or worksheets as needed to guide you in gathering the necessary information.

TAX PREPARER RESPONSIBILITIES

3. We will prepare your 2023 Federal and State individual income tax form 1040 and related income tax return schedules from information you furnish us. We will not audit, review, compile or otherwise verify the data you submit although we may ask you to clarify some of the information. Our minimum fee to prepare an individual federal tax return is $500. We are not responsible for returns prepared by other preparers. We may furnish you with tax organizers and/or questionnaires to help you gather and organize the necessary information for us.

4. We are responsible for preparing only the specific individual income tax forms for the specified reporting agencies listed in paragraph 3 above. Any other requested services, forms or other actions on our part require a separate engagement letter. In the absence of written communications from us documenting such services, our services will be limited to and governed by the terms of this engagement letter. Our services are not intended to determine whether you have filing requirements in other taxing jurisdictions than the one(s) requested in paragraph 3 above.

TAXPAYER RESPONSIBILITIES – PLEASE READ CAREFULLY

5. Please note that any person or entity subject to the jurisdiction of the United States (includes individuals, corporations, partnerships, trusts, and estates) having a financial interest in, or signature or other authority over, bank accounts, securities, or other financial accounts having an aggregate value exceeding $10,000 in a foreign country, shall report such a relationship. Although there are some limited exceptions, filing requirements also apply to taxpayers that have direct or indirect control over a foreign or domestic entity with foreign financial accounts, even if the taxpayer does not have foreign account(s). Failure to disclose the required information to the U.S. Department of the Treasury may result in substantial civil and/or criminal penalties. Such disclosure includes filing Form 8938. If you do not provide our firm with information regarding any interest you may have in a foreign account, we will not be able to prepare any of the required Income Tax related forms and penalties may be due, for which we have no responsibility. In the absence of such information being provided we will presume you do not have any foreign assets or financial interests and will not file any applicable disclosure forms without separate written authorization.

6. US citizens and resident aliens are required to report worldwide income on their US tax return.

7. In addition, currently the Internal Revenue Service requires information reporting if you are an officer, director or shareholder with respect to certain foreign corporations, foreign-owned U.S. corporation or foreign corporation engaged in a U.S. trade or business or U.S. transferor of property to a foreign corporation. Additionally, recent changes require that you report any activity you may have in cryptocurrency including mining, sale, barter, etc. By your signature below, you accept responsibility for informing us if you believe that you fall into one of the above reporting categories and you agree to provide us with the information necessary to prepare the appropriate forms. We assume no liability for penalties associated with the failure to file or untimely filing of any of these forms. Cryptocurrency activity may require reporting on tax returns filed with other countries. We have not determined if such returns are due nor have we been hired to determine filing requirements or to file any tax returns for foreign countries or localities.

8 You acknowledge that you have reported all 2023 income you received including barter, crypto-currency, consumer-to-consumer activity, cash-based revenues, and all other income whether received in-person, in-kind, or electronically. You also confirm that you have or will timely file any applicable required Forms W-2 and W-3 and 1099 with the Social Security Administration and IRS for business employees or home-workers.

OTHER ITEMS

9. Our fee does not include responding to inquires or examination by taxing authorities or third parties, for which you will be separately billed for time and expenses involved. However, we are available to represent you and our fees for such services are at our standard rates and would be covered under a separate engagement letter. You agree to immediately notify us upon the receipt of any correspondence from any agency covered by this letter. Do not respond to or click on any links from emails purportedly from the IRS - the IRS NEVER initiates correspondence via email and any such emails are attempts to steal your identity.

10. It is your responsibility to maintain, in your records, the documentation necessary to support the data used in preparing your tax returns, including but not limited to the auto, travel, entertainment, and related expenses and the required documents to support charitable contributions for three years from the filing date. If you have any questions as to the type of records required, please ask us for advice in that regard. It is also your responsibility to carefully examine and approve your completed tax returns before signing and mailing them to the tax authorities. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions or inadequately supported documentation, nor for resulting taxes, penalties and interest. We will rely, without further verification, upon information you provide to us from 3rd parties including, but not limited to, K1's, 1099's, 1098's, and receipts and similar items. We DO NOT automatically file tax extensions for clients - you must notify us in writing, email or fax if you wish us to file an extension, and the notification should include your estimate of any balance due with the extension. Failure to file an extension may make you subject to various penalties and interest. Additionally, if your return is extended it does not relieve you from paying any tax due on the due date or making quarterly estimated tax payments for the current year. Failure to pay any tax due with the extension or failure to pay quarterly estimated tax payments may make you subject to various penalties and interest.

11. Social media correspondence with us does not constitute tax advice or representation because of its abbreviated nature. We do not retain any such electronic correspondence and have no responsibility to do so. Written correspondence and advice from us is solely represented by surface mail, email through our tpeterscpa.com email address and our 410-313-9875 fax number. No other communication from us may be relied upon, nor is it meant to be relied upon.

12. Business Owners: When a self-employed taxpayer reduces taxable income there is also a reduction in earned income reported to the Social Security Administration, which could reduce current and future benefits for the taxpayer and his or her dependents. You acknowledge and agree to the current tax reduction and acknowledge and agree to the potential negative effects on future social security benefits for you, your spouse and any dependents. Additionally, new state laws regarding the collection of sales tax by online sellers require separate registration, collection, filing and payment with many states at very low activity levels. We were not engaged to, nor did we, determine whether individual state sales tax rules apply to your business. Determination of whether an individual state's sales tax rules apply to your activity are your responsibility unless we have a SEPARATE written engagement letter acknowledging our responsibility to determine or apply sales tax rules for an individual state. Failure to register and file with an appropriate state may expose you to severe penalties.

13. Privacy laws established by the IRS prohibit us from providing confidential information or copies to anyone other than you without your specific, written authorization. To comply with these regulations, we provide all copies of all returns to you in a secure web portal as discussed below. In the interest of maintaining service quality and timeliness, we may use a 3rd party service provider to assist us in the use of technology to facilitate compliance with disclosure and storage of your tax information. We and the 3rd party provider have established written procedures and controls designed to protect client confidentiality and maintain data security.

14. If we are asked to disclose any privileged communication, unless we are required to disclose the communication by law, we will not provide such disclosure until you have had an opportunity to argue that the communication is privileged. You agree to pay any and all reasonable expenses that we incur, including legal fees, that are a result of attempts to protect any communication as privileged. In addition, your confidentiality privilege can be inadvertently waived if you discuss the contents of any privileged communication with a third party, such as a lending institution, a friend, or a business associate. We recommend that you contact us before releasing information to a third party.

15. It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven (7) years after which they are destroyed. However, we do not keep any original client records, so we will return those to you at the completion of the services rendered under this engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for three years for possible future use, including potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies.

16. In the interest of facilitating our services to you, we utilize a secure web portal. Your use of this portal must comply with our standards of use, and as owners of the portal we retain the right to limit and deny use of the portal for inappropriate purposes. Your access to files maintained on the portal will be terminated no later than 30 days after the earlier of your or our termination of services under this agreement or April 15 (upon service termination), unless we are notified in writing of your desire to extend your tax return. All confidential information sent to you or third parties (at your direction), as well as the portal will be password protected. While we will use our best efforts to keep such communications secure in accordance with our obligations under applicable laws and professional standards, you recognize and accept that we have no control over the unauthorized interception of these communications once they have been sent and consent to our use of these devices.

17. From time to time during our relationship, you may seek our advice regarding potential investments. We are not investment advisors. Accordingly, we suggest that you seek the advice of qualified investment advisors appropriate to each investment being considered. We will not advise you regarding the economic viability or consequences of an investment or whether to make a particular investment or not.

18. Invoice payments become delinquent if not paid within 30 days of the invoice date. If billings are not paid within 60 days of the invoice date, at our election, we may stop all work at our discretion until your account is brought current, or we may withdraw from this engagement. You acknowledge and agree that we are not required to continue work in the event of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered as required by this engagement letter. You further acknowledge and agree that in the event we stop work or withdraw from this engagement as a result of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered as required by this engagement letter, we shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of our ceasing to render services. Our services will conclude upon delivery of the completed income tax returns discussed above or upon our suspension of services or resignation from the engagement.

19. In recognition of the relative risks and benefits of this agreement to both the client and the accounting firm, the client and the accounting firm have discussed and have agreed on the fair allocation of risk between them. As such, the client agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to limit the liability of the accounting firm to the client for any and all claims, losses, costs, and damages of any nature whatsoever, so that the total aggregate liability of the accounting firm to the client shall not exceed the accounting firm's total fee for services rendered under this agreement. The client and the accounting firm intend and agree that this limitation apply to any and all liability or cause of action against the accounting firm, however alleged or arising, unless otherwise prohibited by law. Both parties agree that there is a one-year limitation period to bring a claim against us for errors and omissions. The one-year period will begin upon the date of the tax professional's signature on the tax returns covered by this engagement letter.

20. From time to time various third parties may request that we sign, for you, some verification of income, employment or tax filing status. Because we were engaged only to prepare your income tax return the state board of accountancy prohibits
